All Madison Public Libraries will be closed for regular business on Thursday, September 13th for an all staff training day.

Staff Day is a day of learning, sharing, networking, and connecting to the Library's mission and vision. In addition to closing all libraries for the day for as many staff to attend as possible, colleagues from Human Resources, City of Madison Mayor's Office, Madison Public Library Foundation staff and Board members, Friends' Board members and Madison Public Library Board members may be in attendance.

Admission to the building will be through the Henry Street staff entrance for those interested in attending.

Please note that a possible quorum exists of members of the Madison Public Library Board at this event.
