The Housing Operations Division of the Department of Planning and Community and Economic Development provides the following federally funded, low-income housing programs:

1. Section 8 Voucher Program - Provides assistance to eligible individuals and families for renting housing from a private landlord within the Madison city limits.
2. Low Rent Public Housing & Multifamily Housing - 867 units scattered throughout the City of Madison owned and managed by CDA Housing Operations.
3. Section 8 Homeownership Program - Assists eligible families in utilizing their vouchers toward the purchase of a home.
4. Project-Based Voucher Program - Assists new or existing developments with the conversion of tenant-based vouchers to project-based vouchers.
5. Veterans Affairs Supportive Housing Voucher Program - Provides rental assistance to homeless Veterans with case management and clinical services provided by the Department of Veterans Affairs.
6. Family Unification Voucher Program - Provides rental assistance to families who lack adequate housing and require unification, who are at risk of family separation due to homelessness, or who are aging out of foster care. Families are referred by the Dane County Department of Human Services.
7. Mainstream Voucher Program - Provides rental assistance to a limited number of non-elderly persons with disabilities, who were previously experienced homelessness, and who currently are a client in a permanent supportive housing or a rapid rehousing project. Individuals and families are referred by The Tenant Resource Center or The Road Home of Dane County.
8. Moving Up Voucher Program - Provides rental assistance to a limited number of families who were previously homeless, and who currently reside in Permanent Supportive Housing (PSH) and are transitioning or “moving up” from PSH because they no longer need that level of supportive services. Families are referred by the Road Home of Dane County.
9. Emergency Housing Voucher Program - Provides rental assistance to individuals and families who are homeless; at risk of homelessness; fleeing or attempting to flee domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, stalking, or human trafficking; or recently homeless and at high risk of housing instability. Referrals are provided through the Dane County Continuum of Care (CoC).
10. Family Self-Sufficiency Program - Coordinates the use of housing choice vouchers with public and private resources to help eligible families achieve economic independence.
11. Resident Opportunity and Self-Sufficiency Program - A CDA Public Housing resident opportunity for achieving economic independence and housing self-sufficiency. Provides assessment and connection to support services: education, job training and job search, employer and job placement, life skills training, and digital literacy and computer skills training.
12. Service Coordinator Program - Provides funding for the employment of Service Coordinators at the CDA’s Public Housing and Multifamily Housing Triangle site. Service Coordinators assist elderly individuals and persons with disabilities in obtaining the supportive services they need to continue to live as independent as possible in their CDA home and community.
